The 22nd edition of the Armory Show opens to the public on Thursday, March 3, with a preview day on Wednesday, March 2. This year's fair is the first edition with Artnet News editor Ben Genocchio at the helm, replacing Noah Horowitz, who left to be director of the Americas for Art Basel after being credited with reinvigorating the annual event. The fair, which will bring together 205 galleries from 36 countries, returns to New York's West Side with the Modern sector taking over Pier 92 and the Contemporary, Focus, and Presents sectors taking over Pier 94.
